

Rolf S. Jaehnigen Family Scholarship

In support of business and the arts

Rolf S. Jaehnigen, a long time IMA and SCMS member, and his family have established a $1000 scholarship to recognize a student who is passionate not only about his/her business career, but about the arts as well. The arts include music (voice and instrument), dance and theater.

To apply, you must be a junior or senior accounting, finance or information systems major at an accredited business school. Please submit an essay of up to 250 words about how your involvement with the arts has made an impact on your personal and/or professional life. Please provide both a hand written and typed version of the essay along with your most current school transcript available. Include your name, school, address, e-mail, telephone number, social security number and IMA member number at the end of the submission.
